MANAGEMENT OF THE CLUB

4(a). The affairs of the Club shall be managed by a Council, consisting of a President, a Captain, and a Vice Captain (all of whom shall be appointed by the outgoing Council, subject to ratification by the Annual General Meeting); and the following who shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting:-a Secretary, a Treasurer, and Ten Councillors. In addition, the Trustees, and as provided in 3(c) the immediate past President and past Captain shall be members of Council.

4(b).The attendance of eight members at a Council meeting shall form a quorum.

4(c).The immediate past President and past Captain shall remain as members of the Council for the year following the Annual General Meeting at which they relinquish office.

4(d).Elected office bearers, except Trustees, will retire annually, and are eligible for re-election.

4(e). An Auditor shall be appointed at the Annual General Meeting each year.

4(f). A General Meeting other than an Annual General Meeting is authorised to approve the appointment of vice-captain by the present Council and ratify such appointment on the occasion of a General Meeting being other than on the occasion of the Annual General Meeting.

4(g). All Council members will, at the first Council meeting of the year, declare any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest between their membership of Council and their financial, business or familial interests or other involvements. These declarations will be recorded by the Honorary Secretary in the minutes of that meeting. Any Council member for whom a conflict of interest arises after the initial Council meeting will immediately inform the Honorary Secretary in writing of that conflict. The Honorary Secretary will make this information known at the next Council meeting and record it in the minutes. No Council members are permitted to vote on any matter on which they have a conflict of interest. Council may ask a member to leave any Council meeting during discussion of this matter.

Council will rule on the existence of any conflict of interest alleged to exist between any member of Council and Ballyliffin Golf Club. Any Council member found to have an undeclared conflict of interest may be required to stand down from Council.

POWERS OF MANAGEMENT

5(a).The Council shall have power to elect all committees, authorise payments from the funds of the Club, and to adopt such measures as shall seem to be desirable in the interests of the Club. Any decision of the Council, duly posted on the Clubhouse notice board, shall be final and binding on all members of the Club, until set aside by the Council or a General Meeting.

5(b).The Council shall have power to co-opt a member of the Club to fill a vacancy on the Council. The Council will consider all applications for membership.

5(c).The Captain and Secretary shall be ex-officio members of all committees. Membership of the committees need not be confined to members of the Council.

5(d).The Council shall have power to fix, at its discretion all fees and charges connected with the running of the Club. This rule shall cover fees for temporary members and visitors as well as charges for refreshments and meals sold in the Clubhouse. The rate of Annual Subscriptions can only be fixed at a General Meeting.

TRUSTEES OF THE CLUB

6(a).The property of the Club shall be vested in the Trustees in trust for the members, for the time being.

6(b).The Trustees which will number five, shall be appointed by the Council for a term of 5 years, and shall be eligible for re-election at the end of that period. Any Trustee may be removed from office by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting at a General Meeting convened specially for that purpose.

6(c).The Trustees shall have the power to deal with the property of the Club whether by way of purchase, sale, letting, lease, mortgage, release, or otherwise as directed by resolution of the Council. Such decision of Council shall require the consent of two thirds of the members present and voting.

6(d).The Trustees shall have power to borrow monies on the security of the property of the Club as directed by resolution of the Council.

6(e).The Trustees shall be indemnified by the members of the Club, for the time being, against loss or expense which they may incur or become liable to, by reason of the exercise by them of any power conferred upon them as directed by the Council.

GENERAL MEETINGS

7(a) The Annual General Meeting of the club for receiving the Councils report, the Treasurer's financial statement, electing office bearers and Councillors, revising the Constitution and transacting other business shall be held not later than March 1st each year. A preliminary notice of the Annual General Meeting shall be posted on the Clubhouse notice board, and inserted in the local press at least 21 days prior to the meeting. Notice of a motion to be proposed at the Annual General Meeting or any other General Meeting of the Club must be submitted to the Secretary in writing at least 14 days prior to the date of the meeting.

(b) The quorum for a General Meeting shall be 40 members personally present and entitled to attend and vote. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present at the commencement of business, but such a meeting shall not be rendered incompetent to transact business by reason of departure of any member after the chair has been taken. If at the expiration of one hour from the time appointed for a General Meeting, a quorum were not present, the meeting shall stand dissolved.

(c) No member who is absent from the Annual General Meeting may be put forward for election to any office unless the Secretary has received written consent to their nomination.

(d) At least five clear days notice of every General Meeting shall be given to each member by circular to his/her last known place of residence, specifying the time and place of the meeting.

(e) At every General Meeting or other function of the Club, the President or, in his/her absence, the Captain, or, in the absence of both, a chairperson elected by those present, shall preside.

(f) A minute book shall be kept in which the business transacted at all meetings of the Club shall be entered by the Secretary at or after each meeting and which shall be produced at each meeting.

(g) The Secretary shall call a special General Meeting of the Club on receipt of a requisition signed by not less than 20 members and stating the business to be brought forward. Council shall have the power to call a special General Meeting at any time it deems necessary.

COUNCIL MEETINGS

8(a). The Council shall hold meetings monthly to attend to the affairs of the club. Extra meetings may be called when deemed necessary by the Honorary Secretary or Captain or by requisition of five members of the Council. Council members should receive at least two clear days notice of each Council meeting, by circular to his/her last known place of residence, specifying the time and place of the meeting and the business to be transacted. This notice may alternatively be communicated electronically with the consent of the member.

8(b). At its first meeting each year the Council shall appoint from the members of the club such committees or sub-committees as it deems appropriate to the efficient running of the affairs of the club.

8(c). The Council shall define the duties and responsibilities of the committees and may delegate to the committees such power as it deems advisable. Each committee shall have a convenor and shall meet regularly or as directed by council, furnish a report, and make such recommendations to the Council as may seem necessary. The Council shall consider all such reports and, until adopted by that body, these reports shall have no effect.

8(d). All meetings of Council shall be called by the Honorary Secretary, or by requisition of the Captain, or by any five members of Council, stating the business to be transacted.

8(e). At every Council meeting, the Captain or, in his/her absence, the President or, in the absence of both, a chairperson elected by those present, shall preside.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

9(a). Each candidate for admission shall be proposed by a Full Member or Lady Associate Member of five years standing and seconded by another such member and his/her name and address, with the names of his/her proposer, shall be posted on the clubhouse notice board at least seven days prior to the meeting of Council at which his/her admission to the club is to be considered.

9(b). When a proposal for membership has been rejected at a Council meeting, a fresh proposal in respect of the person concerned may not be proposed again for six months.

9(c). Council shall have the power to accept or reject any proposal for membership. Having been accepted for membership, the proposed member will be invited to attend an introductory meeting and shall be on probation for one year. No applications for membership may be accepted unless the amount of the current annual subscription and any required entrance fee has been lodged.

9(d). It shall be left to the discretion of Council to close any category of membership of the club from time to time, as may be considered necessary. If the membership is closed, the Manager/Honorary Secretary shall keep a waiting list of candidates for admission.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS

10(a). The Annual Subscription shall be due and payable by the 1st March each year. After 1st March only members whose subscriptions are paid shall be eligible to compete in Club Competitions.

10(b). Any member whose subscription is not paid by 1st April ceases to be a member of the club. The council may in exceptional circumstances re-admit such person on payment of all arrears without complying with the requirements of 9(a).

METHODS OF VOTING

11(a). No proxies shall be allowed, and if a majority of the members wish any questions under discussion to be put to a vote by secret ballot, that method shall be adopted. When voting is equal the Chairperson shall have a casting vote.

11(b). A declaration by the Chairperson at any Meeting that a motion has been lost or carried shall be conclusive unless, immediately on such declaration, the declaration is questioned or unless a substantial irregularity comes to light subsequently.

11(c). All questions as to the validity of particular votes shall be raised at the time of tender of such votes, and decided by the Chairperson of the meeting, whose decision shall be final, and no question shall be raised at any other time as to the validity of such votes, unless a substantial irregularity comes to light subsequently.

CONDUCT WITHIN THE CLUB

12(a). Ballyliffin Golf Club is a community golf club that prides itself on inclusiveness and its good relationship with the local and wider community. The ethos of the club is to facilitate, promote and encourage the playing of golf and social interaction in a community based family friendly club environment.

12(b). No member, visitor or employee shall at any time act in a manner that could reasonably be considered to be offensive to any fellow member, visitor or employee by way of word, deed or action.

12(c). All members shall adhere at all times to the rules and bylaws of the Club as laid down by Council and all members while playing golf shall adhere to the laws of the game as laid down by the R&A, the rules and bylaws of the GUI and ILGU.

12(d). Any member, visitor or employee whose conduct on club property is deemed contrary to the interest of the club, to any person or otherwise involves breaches of the Constitution and rules of the club or its bylaws may be subjected to a disciplinary procedure. The Manager and Honorary Secretary will be informed of any such breaches and will inform the Captain and President of such complaint.

12(e). If appropriate the Captain, President, Honorary Secretary and Manager may meet individually, or as a subgroup or group with the person(s) to resolve matters and if not appropriate the Honorary Secretary shall bring the matter to a full meeting of Council for determination. The person(s) shall have the right to a full hearing by Council or sub-committee of Council.

12(f). The Club Council is the only authority with the power to suspend or expel a member. Such member so disciplined shall not hold office in the club for a period of five years or such time as determined by Council.

12(g). Council will take no action against any member without full and careful consideration of the implications of such action for Ballyliffin Golf Club. Any member subjected to disciplinary action by Council will have the right of appeal to Council.

12(h). The Manager, any Honorary Officer or Council member may intervene and sanction individual(s) on witnessing any behaviour injurious to the ethos or good name of Ballyliffin Golf Club. The Manager and Honorary Secretary should be informed of any such intervention.

12(i). Complaints should be made in writing to the Honorary Secretary or Manager who, if unable to resolve the issue, shall submit them to Council whose decision shall be final.

RESIGNATIONS

13. Any member wishing to withdraw from the Club must notify his/her wish, in writing, to the Honorary Secretary/Manager before March 1st, in default of which he/she shall be liable for the subscription for the current year. Council will at its discretion have the right to waive this liability.

PLAY ON THE LINKS

14. Council shall have the right to close or reserve the links and/or the clubhouse on any occasion and to impose any restrictions on play which may be necessary.

No competition shall be played on the links without the permission of Council.

NOTICES

15. The exhibition of notices or documents of any kind in the clubhouse is prohibited, unless same is authorised by the Honorary Secretary or Manager.
